HonorsProgram
To recruit academically talented, highly motivated students and foster their intellectual and creative abilities by providing them with an engaging, innovative curriculum, close faculty mentorship, and dynamic learning opportunities in a collegial, learner-centered environment.

Students entering LSUS must meet the minimum requirements of an un-weighted high school GPA of 3.00 and achieved a minimum ACT score of 24.

Students who qualify for the Louisiana, Red River, and Shreveport scholarships are invited to apply.

Currently enrolled students may also apply for late entry into the program. GPA restrictions apply.

Midterms are a serious business ...

HONR 101 is a direct substitution for FS 103, a required freshman course.

HONR 102 is a direct substitution for ENGL 115, a required general education course.

HONR 201 and 202 can be used as social science or humanities electives.

Seminars at the 300- and 400-level lead to a senior thesis under the direction of a faculty mentor.

A minor is awarded with the successful completion of 18 hours of coursework in HONR.
