Your 2014-15 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. LSUS must compare information from your application with information from other documents. If there are differences between your application and your other documents, LSUS will make corrections to your FAFSA. Complete this form and submit it along with any required documents to the Financial Aid Office at LSUS immediately to avoid delays in processing your request for financial assistance. If additional documents are needed or any questions to be answered you will be notified. After verification is completed, you will be notified about the financial aid you are eligible to receive.
