The Rami Sagie New Scholar Award

The “Rami Sagie New Scholar Award” is in memory of Dr. Abraham (Rami) Sagie (1947-2003). The details regarding the award are discussed below:

The award will consist of a cash prize of $750 (USD).

The award will be administered by the ISSWOV Awards Chair and conferred at the ISSWOV conference.

The objectives of the award are:

- 1) To promote and recognize excellence in research in the study of work and organizational values among individuals who have recently completed their doctoral training.
- 2) To provide greater visibility to new scholars among their academic and professional peers.

Eligibility: Any competitive single authored paper submitted by anyone who has obtained his or her doctoral degree within five (5) years of the conference date is eligible. For example, a person is eligible if he/she had obtained the doctoral degree between August 1, 2003 and June 30, 2008 for the ISSWOV 2008 Conference.

Procedure:

- 1) Interested individuals are required to submit a full paper in line with the ISSWOV requirements for competitive papers. Refer to the document entitled “Guidelines for Final Manuscripts” which can be found on the ISSWOV website (www.lsus.edu/ba/isswov).
- 2) A cover letter should indicate the exact date the dissertation was defended, the institution which awarded the doctoral degree and the names and affiliations of the doctoral committee.
- 3) The papers should be sent to the ISSWOV Scientific Committee Chair in electronic format by the deadline for the forthcoming ISSWOV Conference. Abstract submission deadline for ISSWOV 2008: November 1, 2007.
- 4) Nominations to the Award Committee will be made by the Chair of the Scientific Committee based on independent review of the eligible papers.
- 5) The decision will be made by the Awards Chair based on independent evaluation of the recommended manuscripts by an independent awards review panel appointed by the Awards Chair.
- 6) The award winning paper will be presented at the ISSWOV conference where the New Scholar will receive the award.
