

Assistant Professor in Educational Leadership Tenure-Track Position

The Department of Education at Louisiana State University Shreveport (LSUS) is seeking applications for a 9-month, tenure-track Assistant Professor position. The start date of service will be Fall 2021. The selected candidate will teach graduate courses in the Master of Educational Leadership (MEDL) program. Candidates are expected to demonstrate a strong commitment to teaching, research, and service to the university, community, and professional organizations.

Required Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree with a concentration in Educational Leadership or closely related field. (Applicants who are in all-but-dissertation status may be considered.)
- At least three years of service as a campus-level administrator.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience with online instruction (the LSUS MEDL program is delivered exclusively in online format).
- Three or more years of service as a classroom teacher.
- A record of activity in professional development activities (e.g., published articles, published research, and/or presentations to professional groups).

Salary and benefits are commensurate with qualifications and experience.

To apply please send

1. A letter of application
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Names and contact information for at least three references

Requested information or inquiries should be sent electronically to:

Dr. Nelson Coulter
Nelson.Coulter@lsus.edu

Review of complete applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

About LSUS:

LSUS has a current enrollment of more than 10,000 students, and boasts a high percentage of faculty with terminal degrees. The Master's in Educational Leadership program currently enrolls approximately 260 graduate students. The Master's in Educational Leadership program is completely online. Information about the MEDL program can be found <https://www.lsus.edu/academics/graduate-studies/graduate-programs>.

About Shreveport:

The Shreveport-Bossier City area offers an attractive quality of life, combining the conveniences of a big city with the warmth and hospitality of a smaller town. With a metropolitan population of approximately 400,000, the Shreveport-Bossier City area offers a low cost of living, affordable housing, and many diverse dining and entertainment options.

Exceptional outdoor recreation opportunities abound. Frequently called "A Sportsman's Paradise," the area's mild climate, various lakes and rivers, and beautiful parks create the perfect setting for jogging, bicycling, water skiing, jet skiing, hunting and fishing. For other recreational activities, Shreveport-Bossier is home to riverboat casinos and horse racing at Louisiana Downs. Additional entertainment venues include the CenturyLink Center, which hosts numerous musical events, comedians, rodeos, children's events and ice skating productions, among others. Shreveport also hosts dozens of festivals with regional food and music, and offers regular theatrical productions, ballet performances, as well as performances by the Shreveport Symphony and the Shreveport Opera. Shreveport is also home to the American Rose Garden.

LSUS is an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer. The University values equality and is committed to attracting and retaining a diverse faculty that reflects contemporary society and enriches our campus community.